Sure no problem. I'll be uploading comments to FDMS like crazy today so I hope to get them all up by COB. I'll let you know on progress made later this afternoon.

I am doing my telework day today but will be in the office on Friday (and possibly tomorrow depending on how slow things run remotely) so I can add any additional paper comments to the docket this week.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks Laurel!

Laurel,

Should these memos be posted in FDMS as supporting documents?
